
NOVA SOUNDS BAND
& ENTERTAINMENT

Toronto Life Magazine honoured them as the "Best of the City" and in a recent edition, wrote that NOVA SOUNDS BAND AND ENTERTAINMENT "does everything, for everybody, all the time. Like Alice in Wonderland, they grow bigger and smaller on demand, depending on the occasion." NOVA SOUNDS is a true full-service performance, production and event planning company, specializing in top quality live music plus all of the trimmings - lighting, sound, A/V, D.J.'s, recording and even choreographed dancers.

The NOVA SOUNDS BAND features a line-up of superbly talented musicians and vocalists, including double JUNO Award winner Sonia Collymore. It has played for the big guns: the Toronto International Film Festival, the Canadian Opera Company and University of Toronto. And it has every genre covered: rock, disco, Latin, R&B, jazz, classical, R&R, Motown and Broadway....they've played classic rock for 20,000 people at the Rogers Centre but they can easily morph into a classical quartet for a wedding. They've appeared in concert with countless stars and their original song "Voyage of a Lifetime" was heard in the opening ceremonies of the Athens Olympics. The brainchild behind NOVA SOUNDS is musician/songwriter Dr. Alan Shiner, who penned the catchy jingles "967-11-11" and "Everyone Loves Marineland".
